

Red Cross Drive a Remarkable Success Races Joined Hands and Everybody Gave Cheerfully

THE Honolulu Red Cross chapter yesterday had the most marvelous birthday of any Red Cross chapter in the length and breadth of America. Over fifteen thousand members were enrolled and the money taken in at headquarters was over $28,000, with the money from the country districts still to come in on Monday.

Every hour up to six o'clock last evening reports came pouring into the headquarters at Fort and Beretania Streets of more and more new members. The drive started at seven o'clock in the morning with 500 members, and the big whistle blared out at that hour to tell all and sundry that the drive was begun in earnest.

After that the additions came in so rapidly that no one thought of keeping an hourly count until ten o'clock, when J. N. Waldron tallied up 4,880 members.

Nearly One a Second

Almost forty-seven members a minute were enrolled in the next hour, which was the largest in number of members throughout the day. The hour after that saw a few more than a thousand added, making the total 8,759 at twelve noon. They came in steadily but a little more slowly until the hour between two and three o'clock, when 1,563 were added. During the last hour, from five to six, last reports began to come in every few moments.

Everyone at headquarters was tense with expectation that the 15,000 mark would be reached, but though the total kept slowly up the last addition before six o'clock brought it just to 14,888. There were still a few more coming from the Ad Club, and sixty-seven memberships which had not been included from Hackfeld & Co., but even that only made 14,955. Later in the evening A. L. Castle announced that 15,089 memberships had been taken.

Average Two Dollars Each

Up to six o'clock approximately $28,000 had been taken in the headquarters at membership fees. This does not include any of the fees from the country districts, which had 4,875 members at the latest count. Many of these are subscribing, sustaining, or contributing members, so their total in money will be greater than the total number of members, making in all probably over $33,000 as the financial result.

The most remarkable work of the campaign was done at Waiolu plantation, where the canvass was organized by R. H. Beardsmore. From that one plantation alone 1,228 members were gained. Ewa was second with 1,049. George F. Benton was chairman of the Ewa campaign. These two plantations rolled up a total which kept the headquarters workers enthusiastically interested at each fresh report during the day.

Well Organized Work

Splendid organization was noticeable all down the line. The way the canvass was handled by the women of the city under Mrs. Gerrit Wilder and Mrs. H. R. Macfarlane came in for the warmest praise from everyone connected with the drive.

"Beats any election day I ever saw" one man was heard to remark. "The way the reports come in and the way they are handled here has election day beat a mile."

"In other words, it's just like election day would be if we had woman suffrage," an ardent suffragist near by took pains to inform him.

Races Joined Hands

Numberless incidents of interest came up in the work of the canvassers throughout the city. Mrs. Alexander Haines and Mrs. E. M. Watson, in soliciting a Japanese camp, had the assistance of a young Japanese schoolgirl, who, when her prettiest obi and kimono to go from house to house with the two workers as their tentacles. An old Japanese by the name of H. Iwakaki, a painter, gave five dollars as his bit.

Out in Kipahulu an aged Hawaiian woman who ekes out a slender living by doing washing gave twenty-five cents as all she could do. "My pocket twenty-five cents," she said, "but my heart plenty money for Red Cross."

Many automobiles were given up for Red Cross use during the day by the women workers at headquarters, who lent their machines and chauffeurs to aid in the bringing in of reports.

The average contribution per member was about three dollars for each one joining on Oahu. In Maunaloa the average was higher, reaching $4.10 for each member. The totals in the different classes of members cannot be announced until Monday or Tuesday. There were a number of patron and life members, as well as those of the lower classes.

Balloons Started Well

The balloons started up at ten o'clock yesterday morning, but fell foul of an albatross tree and was punctured before it could get free. A large crowd was present at the free site to see the ascension, but they forgot their disappointment when the band came by, and later the ambulance company from Schofield encamped in the Capitol grounds.

The band did its duty valiantly during the morning, riding about the city in a car given for the day by the Rapid Transit Company, and their stirring strains made many a Red Cross dollar fairly jump out of the owner's pocket into the canvasser's hand.

Amulance Parade

Eleven ambulances, two motorcycles, and one hundred men of the Ambulance Company No. 9 paraded through the streets led by the band and remained in the Capitol grounds until three o'clock. The men were detailed for

The boys of Mills School kept six large kites floating from the roof of the Alexander Young Hotel during the day. One huge box kite and five smaller ones bore the mark of the Red Cross high above the city as long as the daylight lasted.

Few Slackers Found

People and automobiles without a Red Cross tag were in the noticeable minority by ten o'clock in the morning. Beginning with The Advertiser's Red Cross page at the breakfast table, they met reminders at every turn that now was the time to join the Red Cross, and no one hung back in doing so. Some men were even known to put their tags in their pockets and cheerfully take out memberships one after another until the pocket was full.

Mrs. R. A. Cooke and Miss May Biven with a few other workers at headquarters collected nickels and dimes from those who came in with which to take out several subscribing memberships for the Molokai leper settlement. Enough was taken during the day to assure thirteen memberships for Molokai, which means that thirteen copies of the Red Cross Magazine will be sent there monthly for the personal of the inmates.

Some Good Workers

The Japanese workers' table was not the least busy one yesterday. Y. Ishi and his workers, spent the day on the sidewalk in front of headquarters, and every one whom he saw passing with a tag was hailed and invited to come inside and join. Ishi gained a large number of members for the organization.

A. A. Hartman of Waterville walked into headquarters with forty-eight new members on his list. It was a complete surprise to the officials. Hartman had constituted himself a volunteer canvasser on his own responsibility, and nothing was known of his activity until he turned in his record. His work was highly appreciated.

Chinese List Large

The Chinese of Honolulu took out 575 memberships in all, with a total of 6,881. They now have 445 annual members, ninety-three subscribing members, and thirty-one contributing members, one sustaining member, and five life members. The Chinese committee headed by Consul-General Tazang Woolman included C. K. Ai, Tong Phong, Yap Kwei Fong, and Lum Yih Keong.

Other separate organizations and districts which reported a total of memberships last night at six o'clock included Waipahu, 219 members; Aiea, 859; Kakaia, 135; Waimanalo, 135; Manalo, 131; Hauula, 220; Libbyville, 206; Kaneohe, 72; Laie, 225; Waiakala, 32; Waiakala, 165; Haleiwa, 92, and Peninsula, 67. The Japanese members gained totaled 1,251, and the private schools added 320 new names. Honolulu's total was 10,514 members.

Memberships taken in at headquarters during the day numbered 461. Mrs. R. R. Elgin was kept busy all day by those who wished to sign application cards.

Ad Club Whirlwind

The Ad Club members made a whirlwind campaign of the business section of the city with the usual Ad Club efficiency employed at its highest point. They also covered many of the larger canneries, factories, and business houses outside of the downtown district. Their latest total was 3,374, and it is expected that they will have even a few more to add when the final returns are computed on Monday. William F. Gaynor was the Ad Club chairman at their headquarters at the Young Hotel, and put in a busy day with C. H. W. Norton as his right hand man and Lee Newton and Mrs. W. N. Mayo to assist both.

Sergeant First Class Fred L. Sherry was detailed for duty at the Red Cross headquarters for the day by the commandant of the department hospital, and was tagged early in the game. Later he assisted in tagging a number of fellow soldiers who drifted in. Chairman Castle busy.

A. L. Castle, chairman of the Honolulu, Hawaii chapter, and executive head of the Red Cross organization in Hawaii, was about the busiest man at headquarters all day, but the glorious result of the weeks of work in preparation kept him from even knowing that he had a right to be tired at six o'clock when the rooms closed.

James A. Rath sat with telephone at his elbow, all day, receiving reports in a steady stream. He was in charge at headquarters.

Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, head of Division One, had a table and a telephone, and her workers kept her occupied every minute with new additions to the number of totals. Her helpers at headquarters were Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. James Judd, Mrs. George Potter and Mrs. John Walker.

Mrs. H. R. Macfarlane, in charge of Division Two, had at her table Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Philip Rodgers, Mrs. Richard Cooke, Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Mrs. Vivian Dyer and Miss May Biven.

J. N. Waldron was in charge of the big chart upon which all the totals for the different districts were entered as they were reported throughout the day. R. H. Clark and H. G. Winkley assisted him. Gerrit Wilder helped out wherever willing services were needed.

Working Fast
Sandwiches, buttered biscuits, fruit, and hot coffee furnished by the women workers were eaten hastily at noon between phone calls and tallies of members and money.

Those who acted as clerks and tellers included Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Beatrice White, Miss Mary Hopkins, Miss Ruth Hazen, Miss Julia Smyth, Harold Podmore, and C. F. Schaefer.

The Japanese representatives at headquarters were T. Kawasaki, who was in charge of all the Japanese workers, Y. Ishi, and M. Kitagawa.

Boy Scouts on Guard
Molehi Itagaki, a Boy Scout of Troop Ten, guarded the big thermometer in front of headquarters all day.

When the indicating tape had reached the top point of 8,000 before noon new numbers were painted up to 15,000 instead of the old ones, and the tape went on steadily climbing through the afternoon.

Sixteen Scouts were on duty at headquarters during the day. They were from Troops Twenty-one, Five, Eight, Ten, Nine and Two. A large number of Scouts escorted the women workers through Palama and the Kalihi districts under the direction of Roger N. Burnham, chief Scout executive. Queen Lilianalani became a patron member of the Red Cross during the morning. She was waited upon by a committee headed by Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, to whom she gave her check for $100. The other members of the committee included Mrs. William Todd and Mrs. E. White Sutton.

JAPANESE WOMEN MAKE HILO GENEROUS GIFT

Granite Lamp Stands Unveiled With Due Ceremonies

HILO, September 28.—Through the good offices of the Japanese Ladies Association of Hilo, this city is now the proud possessor of two fine granite lamp stands which adorn the entrance path to Moohau Park, the Herald reports. The monuments were arranged for last year when the park commissioners and others got busy on a scheme to beautify the city. The Japanese ladies made an offer of two granite lantern stands and the offer was gratefully accepted by the city.

On Monday evening last the ceremony of unveiling the monuments was performed and a large number of people were invited to attend the function at Moohau Park. The pathway leading to the pavilion in the park was decorated with lighted lanterns and there was a fine display of bunting. The guests were met by a reception committee and made feel at home. Refreshments were served and dainty girls, dressed in Japanese clothing, waited on the guests.

The occasion was a very happy one and the guests, who were of many nationalities, enjoyed every minute of the evening. The unveiling of the granite stands was marked by cheers and applause. Hilo is to be congratulated upon having such a splendid body as the Japanese Ladies Association.

OPPONENTS OF DRAFT GIVEN PRISON TERMS

SAN FRANCISCO, September 29.—(Associated Press)—San Francisco draft resisters today were given heavy sentences for their seditious activities.

O'Connell, Hoffman, Wacker and Carey, who were accused of treason for dissemination of handbills urging citizens to resist the operation of the draft law, were sentenced, O'Connell and Hoffman to three years, Wacker to eighteen months and Carey two years, and the Smith brothers one year each.

Judge Van Fleet, in sentencing Attorney O'Connell, who was among those who had been arrested, declared that their activities were "close to being treason, and was intended for a stab in the back at the country."

ARGENTINA'S LABOR TROUBLES SERIOUS

Revolutionary Strike Is Proposed By Radicals

BUENOS AYRES, September 29.—(Associated Press)—Argentina is in the throes of a mighty industrial upheaval, and trade and manufacture is almost entirely suspended.

Anarchists in the ranks of the workers are agitating for a general revolutionary strike, but the socialist elements are so far refusing to join with them.

Review of the antagonism prevalent toward Germany and the popular demand that was declared against the Germans, heavy guards were today placed on all German refugee merchantmen in the harbor here. It is feared that an attempt may possibly be made to sink the vessels, and the authorities are taking every precaution.

JUDGE THOMAS TELLS OF HAWAII'S BEAUTIES

ORANGE, California, Star, September 4.—Sunday night's stereoscopic lecture by Judge W. H. Thomas of the Orange County Superior Court completed the series of special meetings held Sunday evenings at Villa Park Congregational Church. The views used were illustrative of Judge Thomas' Hawaiian trip, a majority of the slides being made from kodak pictures taken by himself. It may not be out of place to say that these pictures show one of two things, a large artistic element in the Judge's make-up, or a strong likeness to the governor of the Hawaiian Islands. The Judge's description of this trip, punctuated and emphasized by the attention he called to the hand of God in all the works of nature and the affairs of men, held the large audience for over two hours, and every body seemed sorry when he stopped. Naturally, the Judge called special attention to the governmental affairs of the Islands, the Juvenile Court over which Judge Whitney has presided for fourteen years, and the innumerable courtesies he received at the hands of Sheriff Charles H. Rose and High Sheriff William Jarrett. That Judge Thomas was deeply impressed by Hawaii and its people was plainly evident and should the proper psychological moment arrive it is highly probable that Southern California might lose one of its ablest and most popular jurists.

REVIVAL CAMPAIGN PLANNED FOR LIHUE

A religious educational campaign is being planned by a committee of religious leaders in the Lihue District on Kauai. This campaign will begin October 21 under the direction of this committee in cooperation with the field secretaries of the Hawaiian Board.

The Lihue Central Committee is organized under the chairmanship of Rev. John M. Lydgate, with Miss Elsie Wilcox as executive secretary.

At present a religious survey of the field is being made by a committee, of which Judge Lyle Dickey is the chairman. This survey seeks to obtain needed information for the intelligent conducting of the campaign and for the securing of information to be used by the churches of that district.

Rev. George Laughton of Hilo has been secured as the speaker for the series of meetings to be held each evening during the first week. And following this week, specialists in various departments of church and community activity will conduct courses for the training of leaders.

The Lihue committee also reports that George Andrus will conduct the singing in connection with the meetings.

AUSTRIA UNWILLING TO RESTORE BELGIUM

PARIS, September 29.—(Associated Press)—A report received at Havre from Rome says that the courier who brought Austria's reply to Pope Benedict's peace plans did not carry a supplementary note to the Vatican in which the evacuation of Belgium was agreed to. The question of restoring Belgium to the ante-bellum status "can be considered non-existent," declares the correspondent.

MAUI BALL LEAGUE IN WIND-UP SERIES

Alerts, From Pearl Harbor, Expected To Play Valley Islanders' Best Today

In the Wailuku, Maui, double-header last Sunday the American Athletics defeated the Japanese by the score of 10 to 1, and the Portuguese walloped the Hawaiians, 14 to 3. Neither game amounted to much.

There is much interest on Maui, however, over the game which will be played today on the Wailuku diamond between the Portuguese and Americans. Should the former win, there will be a tie between the two teams, which will necessitate a play-off series to decide on the Valley Island championship for the year, while should the Americans win today, they will settle the pillikia right off the bat.

The U. S. S. Alerts was expected to arrive in Kahului yesterday morning, in which case the Pearl Harbor stalwarts were scheduled to play against a Maui picked team at Wailuku today. On this score, the Wailuku Times of last Thursday says:

Reputation Goes Ahead
"The Pearl Harbor baseball team, Alerts, will arrive on Maui Saturday and play our boys on Sunday afternoon. The league games will be called off for that day. The task of picking the strongest possible All-Maui team to go up against the Alerts has been entrusted to George Cummings, the old war horse."

"The three Maui sailor boys—Archie Bal, Ketchu, or 'Blackie,' and Antonio to Rogo, Jr.—are members of the team and have covered themselves with glory in the Pearl Harbor diamond. 'It is a strong combination and the Maui players will have to do some tall playing to defeat them."

"It will be some game, all right, and very baseball fan should be there, not only for the sake of the excitement of the game, but also for the sake of our three sailor boys, whose valiant deeds on the Oahu diamonds have reached Maui and made her proud of her sons."

TENNIS TOURNAMENT ON MAUI VERY GOOD

The mixed tennis doubles, being played off under the auspices of the Punahele Athletic Club on the various courts of the island, have been creating considerable interest among the Maui tennis fans, says the Maui News of last Friday. Considerable speculation as to which team will win is noted—the stronger teams of the tournament being Sawyer-Chillingworth, Burns-McPhee, Engle-Couch and Rietow-Vetlesen.

Matches played to date have been as follows: First round—Walsh-Bevens defeated Hardy-Stanley; Sawyer-Chillingworth defeated Burns-Deinert; McLaren-Robinson defeated Rosecrans-Parker; Wicke-Robinson defeated Campbell-Gillan; Schoenberg-Meyhand defeated Bevins-Villiers; McKenzie-Seabury defeated Aiken-McLaren; Chillingworth-Fayor defeated Lillio-Gesner; Deinert-Aodehouse defeated Rattray-Schoenberg; Baldwin-Thompson defeated Thompson-Hair; Burns-McPhee defeated Aiken-Campbell; Rietow-Vetleson defeated Hoffman; Baldwin-Murray-Thompson defeated Value-Fitzgerald.

Second round: Sawyer-Chillingworth defeated Walsh-Bevens; McKenzie-Seabury defeated Chillingworth-Harbold.

Matches in the first round still unplayed are as follows: Taylor-Weight vs. McLaren-Foster; Engle-Couch vs. Chatterton-Hoffman; Blair-Hansen vs. Weight-Rosecrans; Weight-Von Tempisky vs. Lindsay-Boym.

HILO IS READY FOR BASKETBALL SEASON

With the revival of basketball in Hilo again this year, preparations are being made by several teams who have decided to enter the local league competitions, says last Wednesday's Hilo Tribune. At a meeting held Monday night it was decided to start the series on Saturday evening, October 6, and all the necessary officials were appointed.

Believing that they can play basketball equally as well as they can row, the Hilo Yacht Club propose to enter a team, and members of this club, who are desirous of joining, are requested to be in attendance at the armory on Friday afternoon at five o'clock.

Teams are also to be entered by the Y. M. I. Hilo Boarding School and the Hilo Boarding School, and it is quite efficient that the forthcoming competition will be check full of interest. Keen rivalry has existed between teams here for years past, and the same condition obtains at the present time.

John R. Zimmerman will occupy the stellar role in carrying out the necessary arrangements, and it is now up to the men to pull together to make the series a success.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, September 21.—The St. Louis National and St. Louis American League clubs will play an intercity series under the direction of the National Baseball Commission, according to an announcement of the commission today.

Dorothy Burns Breaks World's Record In Two-twenty Race

Honolulu Favorite Mainland Mermaid Beats Miss Galligan of New York

SAN FRANCISCO, September 30.—(Associated Press)—Swimming at Idora Park, Oakland, last night, Miss Dorothy G. Burns of Los Angeles defeated Miss Claire A. Galligan of New York in the two hundred and twenty-five yard tank. Miss Burns established what is believed to be a world's record for women over this distance, making the 220-yard swim in 3:01 1/5. Miss Frances L. Cowells finished a close third.

This despatch is far from clear. Miss Burns both in Honolulu and in the mainland has proven on many occasions to be one of America's best and speediest mermaids. In the last big meet in Honolulu early this month it was always a question as to whether Miss Burns and Miss Galligan who would win.

The World's Almanac for 1917 gives the following on this distance:
"220-yard swim—Held by Hygeia Swimming Club, Atlantic City, New Jersey, May 29, 1916; won by Miss Claire Galligan, National Women's Life Saving League of New York; Miss Elizabeth Becker, Philadelphia, Turin, 1916; second, Miss Josephine Bartlett, National Women's Life Saving League of New York, third, Time, 3 m. 15.4-5s."

Claire A. Galligan Wins National Five-Hundred Swim

SAN FRANCISCO, October 1.—(Associated Press)—Miss Claire A. Galligan, swimming under the colors of the New York branch of the Women's Life Saving League, won the National 500-yard dash for women in the twenty-five yard tank at Idora Park, Oakland, last night. Miss Galligan navigated the distance in 7 minutes 31 2/5 seconds, which established a new record for the distance.

In this race Dorothy G. Burns of Los Angeles was second, and Miss Frances L. Cowells of San Francisco was third.

Miss Galligan clipped off thirty-four seconds from her former record for the distance, swim in a twenty-foot tank. Her old record was 8 minutes 5 2/5 seconds.

This year's World's Almanac gives the following as the record for the 500-yard swim:

"500-yard swim—Held by National Women's Life Saving League, at West Sixtieth Street Baths, New York City, March 31, 1916 (20-yard bath); won by Miss Claire Galligan, National Women's Life Saving League of New York; Miss Lucy Freeman, National Women's Life Saving League, second; Miss Nille Barteldt, National Women's Life Saving League, third, Time, 8 minutes 5 2/5 seconds."

HILO TO BEGIN SOON BASKETBALL SERIES

Five Teams In League Which Opens October 6

Five teams will compete in the Hilo basketball series, which will begin on October 6. The games will be played in the big armory of the National Guard of Hawaii. The following schedule has been arranged by the directors of the Hilo Basketball League. The teams forming the league are the Y. M. I. Hilo Boarding School, Plantation, Hawaii and Hilo Yacht Club, with the first named as favorites.

The Y. M. I. team is made up almost exclusively of St. Louis College players, men who helped the Red and Blue win every interscholastic championship in Honolulu since basketball became a major sport. The schedule is as follows:

Hilo Basketball Schedule
Oct. 6—Y. M. I. vs. Hilo Boarding School, Plantation vs. Hawaii.
Oct. 13—Hilo Boarding School vs. Plantation, Hawaii vs. Yacht Club.
Oct. 20—Plantation vs. Yacht Club, Y. M. I. vs. Hawaii.
Oct. 27—Hawaii vs. Hilo Boarding School, Yacht Club vs. Y. M. I.
Nov. 3—Yacht Club vs. Hilo Boarding School, Y. M. I. vs. Plantation.
Nov. 10—Plantation vs. Hawaii, Y. M. I. vs. Hilo Boarding School.
Nov. 17—Hawaii vs. Yacht Club, Hilo Boarding School vs. Plantation.
Nov. 24—Y. M. I. vs. Hawaii, Plantation vs. Yacht Club.
Dec. 1—Yacht Club vs. Y. M. I. Hawaii vs. Hilo Boarding School.
Dec. 8—Y. M. I. vs. Plantation, Yacht Club vs. Hilo Boarding School.

Joe Pipal, football coach at the Oregon Agricultural College, has just come back from Chicago, and he picks the Giants to win the world series. He says the Sox look weak in several spots, but does not specify.
